Mr. Perdue, chairman of the Committee on Streets, submitted the following report: The recent heavy rains have very much damaged our streets, washing up trunks placed at different crossings of the streets for the purpose of carrying off the water; also washing up the pavements in many places on Hull street, in addition to places worn out by constant travel before the recent heavy rains. We respectfully petition the Council for an appropriation of $1,000 for the purpose of repairing said damage and any others that may require immediate attention. We beg leave to state to the Council that we are unwilling to engage work on our streets unless appro priations are made to meet such expenses. We learn that bills certified by the chairman of said committee for work done by hands engaged by us have been sold and discounted on our streets at the rate of ten per cent. from the face of said bills, for the reason that no funds were in the hands of the city to pay said bills; therefore we are unwilling to contract unless the Council will make us a sufficient appropriation to meet them. We beg to say that it is a matter of necessity that Hull street, the public thoroughfare of the city, should be repaired and if the Council will order us to make such necessary repairs, and approve the bills for such work, as heretofore, we will proceed to execute the same as soon as the weather wil permit, to say nothing of the streets being paved which lie parallel with Hull street. THREE POINTS FOR CONSIDERATION.

During the past five years the VEGETINE has been steadily working itself into public favor, and those who were at first most increanlous in regard o its merit are now its most ardent friends and unporters.

There are three essential causes for those having such a horror of patent medicines chancing their opinion and lending their influence toward the advancement of VFGETINE. 1st. It is an honestly-prepared medicine from barks, roots, and herbard. It honestly accomplishes all that is claimed for it without leaving any bid effects in the system. 3d. It presents honest youchers in testimonials from honest, well-known citizens, whose signatures are a sufficient guarantee of their earnestness in the matter. Taking into consideration the vast quantity of medicine brought consideration the vast quantity of medicine brought corspicuously before the public through the flaming advertisements in the new-paper columns, with no proof of merit or genuine voucher for what it has done, we should be pardoned for manifesting a small degree of pride in presenting the following testimoulals from Rev. J. S. Dickerson, D. D., the popular and ever-genial S. DICKERSON, D. D., the popular and ever-genial pastor of the South Baptist church, Boston:

THE TIRED BODY SUES FOR SLEEP.

H. R. Slevens, Esq:

Dear Sir,—It is as much from a sense of duty as of gratifude that I write to say that your Vr GE-TINE—ven if it is a patent medicine—has been of great help to me when nothing else seemed to avail which I could safely use. Either excessive mental work or unusual care brings upon me a nervous exhaustion that desperately needs sleep, but as desperately defies it. Night after night the poor, tired body sues for sleep until the day-dawn is welcomed back, and we begin our work tired out with an almost fruitless, class after rest. Now, I have found that a little Vr Gr TIVE taken just before I retire gives me sweet and immediate sleep, and without now of the cvil effects of the usual narcotics. I think two things would tend to make brain-workers sleep: 1st. A little less work. 2d A little more H. R. Stevens, Esq : think two things would tend to make oranic workers sleep: 1st. A little less work, 2d A little more VEGETINE. This prescription has helped me. Now, I have a particular horror of "patent medicine," but I have a greater horror of being afraid to tell the straight-out truth. The VEGETINE has heiped me, and I own lt up. Yours, &c., J. S. DICKERSON.

NATICK, MASS., January 1, 1874.

Mr. II. R. Stevens:
Dear Sic,—We have good reasons for regarding your VEGETINE. a meoicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now sever-teen years of age; for the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by rerofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A conneil of abic physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying, two of the number declaring it at he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him V: GETINE, and from that time to the oresent he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, throwat away crutches and cane, and waiks about ously improving, the has an early resumed as stated thrown a way crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be rfeetly cared. perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of VEGETINE, but fairly uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.
Respectfully yours,

F. S. BEST.

Latest News from Washington.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5, 1875. The Extra Session of the Senate.

It is not probable that the extra session of the Senate will be prolonged much beyond the expected time of the President when he issued his proclamation.

Mr. Morton seems determined to press the Louisiana question arew upon the Senate, and will insist upon a resolution seating Pinchback. This will of course precipitate a debate of considerable length and of more than usual interest.

Ex-Congressmen Calling on the President.

Nearly every Republican ex-member o the House of Representatives who went out of office yesterday called upon the President to-day. Many of them are solicitous about their future.

Several nominations will be sent to the Senate on Monday, and it is a matter of some curiosity to know how many of these unfortunates are to be taken care of.

Senator Johnson Lionized.

Senator Andrew Johnson is a veritable lion at this time. His rooms are almost constantly thronged with visitors, and the favorable demonstrations that greeted his appearance in the Senate Chamber to-day were entirely without precedent. Meeting of the Senate in Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, March 5 .- At no time since inauguration-day has there been such a crowd assembled at the capitol as was gathered there this morning to witness the opening of the extra session of the Senate and the swearing in of new senators. The weather was disagreeable, a severe snowstorm prevailing. Ladies, however, were not deterred, and the galleries were filled with them long before the hour of meeting. By 11 o'clock it was impossible to obtain standing-room even in the doorways. Upon the floor of the Senate curious visitors were hunting out the seats of Andrew Johnsor, General Burnside, and other prominent senators who were to be sworn in.

Upon the desk of Andrew Johnson, on the Democratic side of the chamber, as well as upon that of Mr. Dawes, on the Republican side, were handsome bouquets. General Burnside entered the champer greeted with a round of applause from the galleries. Andrew Johnson did not make his appearance until after the meeting of the Senate

When he was called up to take the oath he was greeted with applause, which was soon checked by the Vice-President. At 12 o'clock Vice-President Wilson called the Senate to order.

Chaplain Sunderland, on opening with prayer, invoked the Divine blessing upon the Senate, saying: " As these senators are assembled here to commence a new chapter in the history of this body, give to each of them life, health, and strength, and in all their labors and responsibilities may they lean upon Thy arm for support."

Major McDonald, chief clerk, then read the ne Senate in extra session; after which Vice-President directed him to call the names of the new senators. As their names were called they advanced to the Vice-President's desk and were sworn in in groups of three or four as follows: Messrs, Christiancy, of Michigan; Dawes, of Massachusetts; Eaton, of Connecticut; Edmunds, of Vermont; Hamlin, of Maine; Johnson, of Tennessee; Kernan, of New York; McMillan, of Michigan; McDonald, of Indiana; Paddock, of Nebraska; Randolph, of New Jersey; Thurman, of Ohio; Wallace of Pennsylvania; Whyte, of Maryland; Caperton, of West Virginia; Cockerell, of Missouri; Jones, of Florida; Maxey, of Texas; Withers, of Virginia. The last named five took the modified oath, they having been engaged in the Confederate cause. The new senators were nearly all escorted to the Vice-President's desk by colleagues. Messrs. Booth, of California, and Sharon, of Nevada, not having reached the city, did not respond when their names were called. After the oath had been administered t Mr. Johnson a handsome bouquet was handed to him by a page, with whom it had been left by some friend of the ex-President. After administering the oath of office Vice-President Wilson shook hands with each senator. The new senators having all been sworn in and seated, Mr. Anthony submitted an order that the daily hour of meeting be 12 o'clock. Agreed to.

Mr. Edmunds submitted a resolution previding for the appointment of a committee of two senators to wait upon the President and inform him that a quorum had assembled, and that the Senate was ready to receive any communication from him; which was agreed to, and the Chair appointed Messrs. Edmunds and Stevenson.

Mr. Morton, of Indiana, submitted the following, which was read and laid over : Resolved by the Senate, That the State government now existing in Louisiana, and epresented by William P. Kellogg as Governor, is the lawful government of said State; that it is republican in form; and that every assistance necessary to sustain its proper and lawful authority in said State should be given by the United States when properly called upon for that purpose, to the end that the laws may be faithfully and promptly executed, life and property proected and defended, and all violators of law, State or national, brought to speedy punishment for their crimes. He also offered the following: Resolved, That P. B. S. Pinchback be ad mitted as a senator from the State of Louisiana for the term of six years from the 4th of March, 1873. He asked that it be bid on the table, and gave notice that he would call it up for consideration at an early day, perhaps Monday Mr. Anthony moved that when the senate adjourn to-day it adjourn to meet on Monday pext.

Mr. Hamlin, of Maine, said the Senate might as well meet to morrow. It was well known that there was a necessity for reorganizing the committees, and it might us well be done this week as next. Mr. Anthony's motion was agreed to. On motion of Mr. Frelingbuysen, at 12.29

P. M., the Senate took a recess till 1 o'clock. Upon reassembling, Mr. Edmunds, from the committee to wait upon the President, reported that they had performed that duty. and the President replied that he would communicate with the Senate on Monday. Adjourned. Hon. Alten T. Caperton, of West Va.

WASHINGTON, March 5 .- The World of today says: "Alles T. Caperton, the newly elected Democratic senator from West Virginia, is not waknowa, as the Herald supposes. He is as well known in Virginia as in West Virginia. He is a gentleman of unrivalled booor, an able lawyer, who maintained a high rank in the Supreme Court of both States, and when in any public station has always been conservative and wise. He served in both branches of the Legislature of Virginia before the war and in the Secession Convention, although opposed to secession. He was afterwards elected to the Confederate Senate, and in neither the Legislature, Convention, nor Senate was there a man who enjoyed more of the respect and esteem of his associates than Allen T. Caperton did."
